WARNING about Veterans Identification Cards~

A (VIC) is issued to any Veteran entering VA's Health Administration which identifies eligible Veterans at medical facilities.

The bar code on the back of the card carries personal information. Some bar code readers-including applications on cell phones or at retail locations-can scan the bar code and reveal this personal information. Credit cards may have the same vulnerability.

VA is developing a new VIC that will minimize the risks associated with identity theft. The new card is expected in 2011. Until then, Veterans should take appropriate precautions and keep their VIC safe and secure.

ATTENTION! Sabo class action lawsuit~

If you served on active duty in and Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Air Force, and, were found by a Physical Evaluation Board to be unfit for continued service due, at least in part, to PTSD, and, were assigned a disability rating of less than 50% for PTSD, and, as a result were release, separated, retired or discharged from active duty after December 17, 2002 and prior to October 14, 2008.

PLEASE CONTACT MY OFFICE TO OPT-IN TO THIS CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT

Protect your family with a FREE firearm safety lock~

The Veteran Family Firearm Safety Program has enabled numerous police departments to distribute 35 million Project ChildSafe cable gunlock safety kits. Project ChildSafe gunlocks are being distributed at all VA Medical Centers and many related facilities. They are available to all Veterans and Veteran family members-regardless of whether a Veteran is enrolled in VA.

To obtain a gunlock and firearm safety educational materials, contact the local VA Medical Center Police Department in Albany at 518/626-6750 – Lt. Richard Kempter.
