

Social Media Commentary Policy

Warren County encourages a free and open dialog where people of differing opinions can come together in a civil way and converse. However, please know that content posted on our social media pages will be deleted if it includes:

- Libelous, slanderous, inflammatory or defamatory comments
- Vulgar, racist or sexist slurs
- Obscenities
- Comments pertaining to violence
- Incorrect information
- Comments that are not relevant to the topic
- A user who is misrepresenting themselves

Repeated violations of the above stated policy (three or more) will result in the user being banned from the page.
