Find the Halloween words from the bottom in the Halloween word search grid. The words can be forwards or backwards, vertical, horizontal, or diagonal. Circle each letter separately, but keep in mind that letters may be used in more than one word. When the Halloween word search puzzle is complete, read the remaining letters left to right, top to bottom, to learn an interesting Halloween fact.

Older New Yorkers continue to be targets of scams and con artists. This is not only causing problems older people but also the many providers, including the Warren/Hamilton Counties Offices for the Aging (OFA). There are times when the OFA will need to call you to get important information. Many are becoming reluctant to give out any information over the telephone. However, if you know the person there are times when it is necessary to give out information. First, let talk about two telephone scams that are impacting older people across the state.

The Medical Alert Device scam. I am sure many of you have seen the television commercials for various “medical alert devices” (that you can obtain through the OFA) as well as other products. Individuals posing as representatives from medical device companies have been calling people across the state. My wife and I have received a number of calls where we live in Central New York. They will tell you that you have been chosen to receive “free medical” alert equipment that is necessary for you to remain safely in your home. All you have to do is provide them with some information, such as your Social Security number and your credit card information to pay for shipping and handling.

The New York Department State Division of Consumer Protection has issued a special alert concerning these calls. Legitimate companies selling things will never ask for your personal information in an unsolicited phone call.

The National Do Not Call Registry scam. One way to protect yourself against unwanted telephone solicitations is to have your name placed on the National Do Not Call Registry. Once you have placed your name in the Registry it will remain on file permanently, you never have to register again. Recently people have been receiving calls from agents saying they represent the Registry and that their names are about to be removed from the list. All they need to do is give the caller some additional information, such as their Social Security number, and their names will remain on the Registry. These calls are not coming from the Registry or the Federal Trade Commission. If you receive such a call report it to the OFA.

If you have not done so and would like to put your name on the National Do Not Call Registry the number is 1-888-382-1222 from the phone you wish to register or go to https://www.donotcall.gov/default.aspx on the Internet and click “Register a Phone Number” in the left hand column of their home page. There is also a New York State Do Not Call List. Go to http://www.dos.ny.gov/consumerprotection/do_not_call/ to register your home phone. You can also register your cell phone.

What to do if you think you are receiving fraudulent phone calls.

• If you receive a call from someone you don’t know asking for personal information, hang up your phone.
• If you decide to take the call ask for the name of the person you are talking to, the name of the business and their phone number. If you think you might be interested in their offer you can hang up and call them back at the number they gave you. You can also check out the business on the Internet.
• Report what you think are scams and fraudulent calls to the OFA so they can alert other older people in the counties. They can also assist you in reporting the calls to the NYS Division of Consumer Protection.

When should you give out information over the phone? Give out information only to people you know and trust. County offices, such as the OFA, will clearly identify themselves. Your physician’s office and pharmacy are other types of calls you may responds to safely.

Dr. William Lane is the owner of William Lane Associates, a gerontological firm based in Delmar, NY. He is writing a monthly column on issues related to health insurance for the OFA. He does not sell insurance, work for any insurance company or recommend any insurance products.
TRAVEL TIPS FOR FOLKS OVER 50!

Today’s seniors are healthier, more active, and more adventurous than ever before. That means they’re also traveling more than ever before. To visit grandkids. To go hunting and fishing. Even to take that once-in-a-lifetime trip overseas.

But even if you’re in tip-top shape, the physical changes that come with age present new challenges and obstacles — not to mention the hassles of modern travel, the extra security, the hidden fees, and so on. So here are some tips to make travel easier, more fun, and more safe after 50:

1. DON’T TRUST OVER-THE-COUNTER DRUGS OVERSEAS. They’re like a box of chocolates: You never know what you’re going to get. So always carry these basic OTC drugs with you when you travel:
   - Antacids
   - Anti-diarrheal
   - Sunscreen
   - Cough-and-Cold medicine
   - Hydrocortisone cream
   - Motion sickness medicine
   - Antihistamines
   - Insect Repellent

2. IF YOU’RE GOING TO A SUNNY LOCALE … be sure to ask your doctor if any of your prescription medicines cause increased sensitivity to the sun. Many do.

3. CREATE A SIMPLE “MEDICAL INFORMATION FORM” TO CARRY IN YOUR WALLET OR WITH YOUR PASSPORT. Your form should include:
   - Your name, address, and phone number
   - Friends and relatives who should be contacted in an emergency
   - Personal physician contact
   - Dentist contact
   - Current medications (both prescription and OTC)
   - Known drug and food allergies
   - Name and number of medical insurance company

4. TIP: ASK FRIENDS WHO RECENTLY VISITED YOUR DESTINATION what they wished they had taken with them! Facebook works great for this.

5. REMEMBER: Medicare will NOT cover you outside of the United States, Canada, or Mexico.

6. DON’T FORGET! Even in the United States, Medicare (and most insurance plans) only pay to get you to the nearest hospital — no matter how inadequate that hospital might be. If you need to be evacuated to a more appropriate facility, it’s at your expense.
7. TAKE MORE PRESCRIPTION MEDICINE THAN YOU THINK YOU’LL NEED. An extra week’s worth is a good rule of thumb.

8. ASK YOUR DOCTOR FOR DUPLICATE PRESCRIPTIONS in case your pills are lost or stolen.

9. PUT YOUR PILLS IN YOUR CARRY-ON, not your checked luggage. You’re much less likely to lose them that way.

10. ADJUST YOUR SCHEDULE OF PRESCRIPTION MEDICINE TO ACCOUNT FOR TIME ZONES. An easy way to do this is to carry an extra watch and keep it set to “home time.”

11. IF YOU’RE SUSCEPTIBLE TO MOTION SICKNESS, the best location in a boat is amidships, the best location in an airplane is over the wing.

12. THE 7 TOP TRIGGERS OF TRAVELER’S DIARRHEA:

- Custards, pastries, and other desserts
- Raw vegetables, cold platters, and crudités
- Raw eggs or unpasteurized cheeses
- Tap water and ice cubes made of tap water
- Leafy green vegetables
- Raw shellfish
- Raw meat

13. WORLD’S BEST MEDICINE FOR TRAVELER’S DIARRHEA: Imodium AD®

14. SUNSCREEN SECRET: Shake the bottle well before applying. Because the active ingredient is suspended in a neutral lotion.

15. WORLD’S STRONGEST SUNSCREENS are made with one of these two ingredients: Americaine or Dermoplast.

16. BUG BITES AND BEE STINGS: Applying meat tenderizer (like Accent®) is one of the best ways to reduce pain and swelling.

17. SUNSTROKE SECRET: Eat bananas, tomatoes, and oranges which are rich in electrolytes to avoid dangerous dehydration.

18. NEVER WEAR NEW SHOES, or especially hiking boots, on vacation. Take a few weeks to break them in first unless you want blisters.

19. IF YOU TAKE NITRO FOR YOUR HEART, make sure the pills or patches are fresh. They lose their potency over time.

20. IF YOU TAKE INSULIN, carry a prescription for your syringes. Many states and countries will not sell them to you over the counter.

How to Eat Healthy on a Budget

Here are your tips for healthy eating on a budget:

1. Plan your menu ahead. Impulsive buying and eating can cost extra money, calories and your health. Make a weekly menu and shopping list that includes good seasonal and shopping deals. And never ever shop on an empty stomach!

2. Buy unprocessed foods. Most processed packaged foods are higher in fat and sodium and cost more than whole foods. So shop mainly on the outer perimeter of the store and spend the bulk of your money on fresh fruits, vegetables, fish, poultry, and low-fat dairy and whole grains.

3. Compare frozen prices. Frozen produce is often less expensive than fresh. Plus it’s picked at the height of ripeness, flash frozen to retain nutrition and flavor and can stay frozen until ready to use.

4. Be selective with protein. The costliest part of your food budget tends to be protein. Since beans and whole grains, like brown rice, combine to make balanced, less expensive protein, use them in dishes to fill in the cracks when you can cut down on costly animal protein.

5. Look for things on sale. Stores often have coupons or foods on special. But make sure it’s something you can use, store or freeze.

6. Buy more foods in bulk. Whenever feasible, buy enough to get case or bulk discounts. Just make sure you store all foods safely.

7. Pack your own snacks. Nothing ruins your health and budget faster than a hunger-attack when you’re out and about. Always carry snacks, like sliced veggies, whole grain crackers or cheese and an apple.

8. Dine at home more often. Home cooking is not just healthier, it’s also cheaper. When you’re too busy, buy a rotisserie chicken and add side dishes. If you do eat out, downsize to a healthy "kid’s meal".

9. Cook double, freeze half. Prepare food in large batches and freeze meal-size portions for when you’re too busy to cook.

10. Eat healthy low calories. Many studies show that a healthy low calorie diet (no lower than 800 calories) is best for your health. So eating less is one of the most important tips for eating healthy on a budget.

Turkey & Squash Soup

Healthy Budget-Friendly Recipes

This Southwestern-inspired turkey-and-squash soup gets a little kick from crushed red pepper and some zing from fresh lime juice. You can use leftover turkey or chicken (instead of the cutlets); dice it and add a few minutes before serving. Serve with cornbread.

6 servings, about 1 1/2 cups each | Active Time: 35 minutes | Total Time: 45 minutes

Ingredients

- 2 teaspoons canola oil
- 2 leeks, trimmed, chopped and rinsed
- 1 red bell pepper, chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 4 cups reduced-sodium chicken broth
- 1 1/2 pounds butternut squash, (1 small to medium), peeled, seeded and cut into 1-inch cubes
- 2 tablespoons minced fresh thyme, or 2 teaspoons dried thyme
- 1 1/2 teaspoons ground cumin
- 1 pound turkey cutlets, cut into 1/2-by-2-inch strips
- 2 cups frozen corn kernels
- 2 tablespoons lime juice
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Freshly ground pepper, to taste

Preparation

1. Heat oil in a Dutch oven over medium-high heat. Add leeks and bell pepper; cook, stirring often, until the vegetables begin to soften, 3 to 4 minutes. Add garlic and cook, stirring, for 1 minute more. Stir in broth, squash, thyme and cumin; cover and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and cook until the vegetables are tender, about 10 minutes.
2. Add turkey and corn; return to a simmer and cook until the turkey is just cooked through, 3 to 4 minutes. Add lime juice and crushed red pepper. Season with salt and pepper.

Nutrition: Per serving: 231 Calories; 3 g Fat; 0 g Sat; 30 mg Cholesterol; 31 g Carbohydrates; 24 g Protein; 6 g Fiber; 550 mg Sodium; 692 mg Potassium. Exchanges: 1 1/2 starch, 1 vegetable, 3 very lean meat
Halloween was originally a Celtic holiday celebrated on October 31.

Halloween was brought to North America by immigrants from Europe who would celebrate the harvest around a bonfire, share ghost stories, sing, dance and tell fortunes.

The ancient Celts thought that spirits and ghosts roamed the countryside on Halloween night. They began wearing masks and costumes to avoid being recognized as human.

Orange and black are Halloween colors because orange is associated with the Fall harvest and black is associated with darkness and death.

There are no words in the dictionary that rhyme with orange, the color of pumpkin.

A pumpkin is a berry in the cucurbitaceous family, which also includes melons, cucumbers, squash and gourds. All these plants are native to the Americas.

Pumpkins originated in Central America. When Europeans arrived in the New World, they found pumpkins plentiful and used in cooking by Native Americans. They took seeds back to Europe where they quickly became popular.

According to folklore, the jack-o-lantern got his name from a man named Jack.

Jack-o-lanterns originated in Ireland where people placed candles in hollowed-out turnips to keep away spirits and ghosts on the Samhain holiday.

Turnips and beets served as the original Jack-o-lanterns.

Mexico celebrates 'The Day of the Dead' instead of Halloween.

It is believed that the Irish began the tradition of Trick or Treating. In preparation for All Hallow’s Eve, Irish townsfolk would visit neighbors and ask for contributions of food for a feast in the town.

Halloween is the 2nd most commercially successful holiday, with Christmas being the first. People spend as much as over $2.5 billion during Halloween on candies, costumes, decorations and parties.

Halloween candy sales average about 2 billion dollars annually in the United States.

Chocolate candy bars top the list as the most popular candy for trick-or-treaters with Snickers.

Black cats were once believed to be witch’s familiars who protected their powers.

Samhainophobia is an intense fear of Halloween.
Decent Affordable Housing

Families who are currently living in substandard housing and cannot obtain a conventional mortgage may qualify for a Habitat for Humanity home.

Habitat partner families are selected based on their level of need, ability to pay and willingness to partner.

Habitat does not give homes away; Habitat homes are sold to partner families at no profit, financed with affordable, no-interest loans. In addition to a down payment and the monthly mortgage payments, homeowners invest hundreds of hours of their own time and effort to build their home (sweat equity).

If Jimmy cracks corn and no one cares, then why is there a stupid song about him?

Can a hearse carrying a corpse drive in the carpool lane?

If the professor on Gilligan's Island can make a radio out of a coconut, why can't he fix a hole in a boat?

Why do toasters always have a setting that burns the toast to a horrible crisp, which no decent human being would eat?

How is it that we put man on the moon before we figured out it would be a good idea to put wheels on luggage?

Why is it that people say "slept like a baby" when babies wake up like every two hours?

If a deaf person has to go to court, is it still called a hearing?

Why are you in a movie, but you're on TV?

Why do people pay to go up tall buildings and then put money in binoculars to look at things on the ground?

How important does a person have to be before they are considered assassinated instead of just murdered?

Why do you have to "put your two cents in"... but it's only a "penny for your thoughts"? Where's that extra penny going to?

Once you're in heaven, do you get stuck wearing the clothes you were buried in for eternity?

Why does a round pizza come in a square box?

What disease did cured ham actually have?

Why does goofy stand erect while Pluto remains on all fours? They're both dogs!

If Wile E. Coyote had enough money to buy all that Acme stuff, why didn't he just buy dinner?

If corn oil is made from corn, and vegetable oil is made from vegetables, what is baby oil made from?

If electricity come from electrons, does morality come from morons?

Do the alphabet song and twinkle, twinkle little star have the same tune?

Why did you just try singing the two songs above?

Did you ever notice that when you blow in a dog's face, he gets mad at you, but when you take him for a car ride, he sticks his head out the window?
