March is Gambling Awareness Month

Read below for some of the signs when gambling has become – or is starting to become – more than an occasional amusement and turning into an addiction:

▪ Are you or a loved one haunted by bill collectors?
▪ Do you or a loved one gamble to escape worry, boredom or trouble?
▪ Do thoughts of gambling disrupt your sleep?
▪ Do you or a loved one ever gamble longer than originally planned?
▪ Do arguments or disappointments cause you or a loved one to gamble?
▪ Do you or a loved one celebrate good times with gambling?
▪ Have you ever had self-destructive thoughts because of problems resulting from gambling?
▪ Have you or a loved one lost time from work or school due to gambling?
▪ Do you hide the rent/mortgage money because your spouse, partner gambles it away?
▪ Do you or a loved one borrow money to finance gambling or to pay back gambling debts?
▪ Does your loved one promise faithfully that she or he will stop gambling, yet continues to gamble?
▪ Have you noticed a personality change in a loved one as his or her gambling has progressed?
▪ Is your loved one away from home or unavailable to the family for long periods of time due to gambling?

The New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services provides inpatient, residential care for New Yorkers suffering from gambling addiction at several NYS OASAS Addiction Treatment Centers (ATCs). The centers now admit and treat individuals with problem gambling as their primary diagnosis. Patients can be admitted for up to 30 days of treatment, and these facilities accept all patients regardless of their ability to pay. Problem gambling education also will be provided to patients at these ATCs:

▪ Richard C. Ward Addiction Treatment Center, Middletown
▪ John L. Norris Addiction Treatment Center, Rochester
▪ St. Lawrence Addiction Treatment Center, Ogdensburg
▪ Margaret A. Stutzman Addiction Treatment Center, Buffalo

For more information, including referral or admission to one of these ATC facilities, or outpatient treatment for problem gambling in your community, contact the New York State HOPE line at 1-877-8-HOPENY (1-877-846-7369) or by texting HOPENY (Short Code 467369). For general information about problem gambling, visit the New York Council on Problem Gambling website.

Long before she was Carole King, chart-topping music legend, she was Carol Klein, Brooklyn girl with passion and chutzpah. She fought her way into the record business as a teenager and, by the time she reached her twenties, had the husband of her dreams and a flourishing career writing hits for the biggest acts in rock ‘n’ roll. But it wasn’t until her personal life began to crack that she finally managed to find her true voice.

Beautiful – The Carole King Musical tells the inspiring true story of King’s remarkable rise to stardom, from being part of a hit songwriting team with her husband Gerry Goffin, to her relationship with fellow writers and best friends Cynthia Weil and Barry Mann, to becoming one of the most successful solo acts in popular music history. Along the way, she made more than beautiful music, she wrote the soundtrack to a generation.

Featuring a stunning array of beloved songs written by Gerry Goffin/Carole King and Barry Mann/Cynthia Weil, including “I Feel The Earth Move,” “One Fine Day,” “(You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman,” “You’ve Got A Friend” and the title song, BEAUTIFUL has a book by Tony® Award-nominee and Academy® Award-nominated writer Douglas McGrath, direction by Marc Bruni, choreography by Josh Prince and took home two 2014 Tony® Awards and the 2015 Grammy® for Best Musical Theater Album.

March is National Nutrition Month

Eating healthier doesn't mean changing your entire eating pattern overnight. Small changes, made over time, can add up. For National Nutrition Month® 2017, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics urges everyone to start small – one forkful at a time, and "Put Your Best Fork Forward".

Physical activity along with enjoying healthy foods is an important part of developing a healthy lifestyle we can maintain for years.

Eat Right for Your Lifestyle

There's no one diet that is right for everyone, so it's important to follow a healthful eating plan that's packed with tasty foods and that keeps your unique lifestyle in mind.

Tips to add nutrient-rich foods and beverages to your daily diet:

▪ Make oatmeal creamier by using fat-free milk instead of water. Mix in raisins, dried cranberries, cherries or blueberries.

▪ Make sandwiches on whole grain bread, such as whole wheat or whole rye. Add slices of avocado, tomato or cucumber to lean roast beef, ham, turkey or chicken.

▪ When eating out, look for nutrient-rich choices, such as salads with grilled seafood and low-calorie dressing, baked potatoes topped with salsa, grilled vegetables and reduced-fat cheese and yogurt parfaits made with strawberries and blueberries.

▪ Drink nutrient-rich, low-sugar beverages such as low-fat or fat-free milk or 100-percent fruit juice.

▪ Top foods with chopped nuts or reduced-fat sharp cheddar to get crunch, flavor and nutrients.

▪ Cut and bag vegetables so they are in easy reach of every family member. Ready-to-eat favorites include red, green or yellow peppers, broccoli or cauliflower flowerets, carrots, celery sticks, cucumbers, snap peas or radishes.

▪ Serve meals that pack multiple nutrient-rich foods into one dish, such as hearty, broth-based soups that are full of colorful vegetables, beans and lean meat. Make chili with low-fat yogurt. Serve these with whole-grain breads or rolls.

▪ For dessert, blend mango, plain low-fat milk, ice and pineapple juice or stir chocolate syrup into a cup of coffee-flavored yogurt, freeze and drink.

“Skinny” Chicken Tacos

1 pound thinly sliced chicken breasts, cut into thin strips
3 limes, juiced, divided
2 teaspoons ground cumin, divided
2 teaspoons garlic powder, divided
2 teaspoons ground chipotle pepper, divided

Combine chicken, juice of 1 lime, 1 teaspoon cumin, 1 teaspoon garlic powder, and 1 teaspoon chipotle pepper in a bowl; allow to marinate for 10 minutes.

Saute red bell peppers, onion, jalapeno peppers, juice of 1 lime, 1 teaspoon cumin, 1 teaspoon garlic powder, and 1 teaspoon chipotle pepper in a large non-stick skillet over medium-high heat until vegetables are tender yet crisp, about 5 minutes.

Transfer chicken mixture to a separate non-stick skillet over medium-high heat; saute until chicken is no longer pink in the center, 5 to 10 minutes.

Layer tortillas between paper towels on a microwave-safe plate; heat in microwave until warmed, 10 to 20 seconds.

Spoon vegetables and chicken onto tortillas; top with cilantro and lime juice.

Spinach salad with blue cheese, walnuts and dried cranberries. If you can’t find walnut oil, olive oil may be substituted.

Prep: 15 mins
Ready in: 15 mins

Harvest Salad

1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 bunch spinach, rinsed and torn into bite-size pieces
1/2 cup dried cranberries
1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese
2 tomatoes, chopped

1 avocado - peeled, pitted and diced
1/2 red onion, thinly sliced
2 tablespoons red raspberry jam (with seeds)
2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
1/3 cup walnut oil
freshly ground black pepper & salt to taste

Preheat oven to 375 degrees F (190 degrees C). Arrange walnuts in a single layer on a baking sheet. Toast in oven for 5 minutes, or until nuts begin to brown.

In a large bowl, toss together the spinach, walnuts, cranberries, blue cheese, tomatoes, avocado, and red onion.

In a small bowl, whisk together jam, vinegar, walnut oil, pepper, and salt. Pour over the salad just before serving, and toss to coat.

Healthy Recipe Substitutions

We're always looking for ways to make our favorite foods healthier without sacrificing flavor.

Sweet Potato Fries for French Fries
Opting for sweet potatoes rather than the traditional white adds an extra dose of fiber, and vitamins A, C, and B6. Plus, it cuts out roughly 20 grams of carbohydrates per 1-cup serving. Don’t write off white ones for good though, they still have some great health benefits too.

Kale Chips for Potato Chips
Who would’ve guessed that a leafy green could make such delicious chips? When lightly tossed in olive oil and some seasoning (salt and pepper, paprika, or chili powder are our faves) and baked, these curly greens turn into a delightfully delicate, crunchy snack.

Unsalted Nuts for Salted in Trail Mix
The problem with most trail mixes? They pack in the sugar-filled, candy-coated chocolate, and dried fruit. Instead, make your own trail mix with unsalted nuts and dark chocolate bits that are lower in sugar and higher in antioxidants.

Popcorn for Potato Chips
Lower in fat, natural popcorn without pre-flavored seasonings is a great snack alternative to replace those oily, super-salty potato chips. Try made-at-home flavors by adding cinnamon, chili powder, or parmesan.

Dark Leafy Greens for Iceberg Lettuce
All greens are not created equal. Darker greens usually mean more nutrients like iron, vitamin C, and antioxidants. Sorry, iceberg’s just not cutting it anymore—go out and get some grown-up greens.

Whole-Wheat Flour for White Flour
In virtually any baked good, replacing white flour with whole-wheat can add a whole new dimension of nutrients, flavor, and texture. Because whole-wheat includes the outer shell of the grain, it also provides more fiber, which aids in digestion and can even lower the risk of diabetes and heart disease.

Brown Rice for White Rice
When white rice is processed, the "brown" bran layer gets stripped away, cutting out essential nutrients (like fiber). Opt for brown rice for a fuller nutritional profile.

Whole-Wheat Bread for White Bread
Whole-grain wheat beats out processed white with a complete nutrition profile and better flavor and texture.

Rolled Oats for Cereal
Chewy and a little crunchy, rolled oats are—literally—rolled into a flat grain; cereal is (usually) more processed with extra added sugar.

Greek Yogurt for Sour Cream and Mayo
Lighten up taco toppings by opting for Greek yogurt instead of sour cream. Greek yogurt offers an extra dose of lean protein. Add some herbs and a squeeze of lemon juice, and they’ll taste almost identical.

Superfast, juicy Salisbury Steak makes for an ideal dinner tonight and a super filling lunch tomorrow. Here, we used a blend of two kinds of ground meats in the patties for a lighter bite. The ground turkey breast brings the total fat down while the ground round adds moistness and flavor. Serve this dish to your family with a side of roasted vegetables, such as potatoes and carrots, and creamy mashed potatoes for all around smiles.

Superfast Salisbury Steak

_Yield:_ 6 servings (serving size: 1 patty and 2 tablespoons sauce)

- 3/4 pound ground turkey breast
- 3/4 pound ground round
- 1/3 cup dry breadcrumbs
- 2 large egg whites
- Cooking spray
- 3/4 cup water
- 3 tablespoons tomato paste
- 2 tablespoons Madeira wine or dry sherry
- 1 1/2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 1 (10 1/2-ounce) can condensed French onion soup (such as Campbell's)

Combine first 4 ingredients. Divide mixture into 6 equal portions, shaping each into a 1/2-inch-thick patty. Heat a large nonstick skillet coated with cooking spray over medium-high heat. Add patties; cook 6 minutes or until browned, turning after 3 minutes. Remove patties from pan; keep warm. Stir in water and remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil; add patties. Cover, reduce heat, and simmer 10 minutes. Uncover and cook until wine mixture is reduced to 3/4 cup (about 10 minutes).

Chaos of Non-Uniform DST

Widespread confusion was created during the 1950s and 1960s when each U.S. locality could start and end Daylight Saving Time as it desired.

One year, 23 different pairs of DST start and end dates were used in Iowa alone. For exactly five weeks each year, Boston, New York, and Philadelphia were not on the same time as Washington D.C., Cleveland, or Baltimore—but Chicago was. And, on one Ohio to West Virginia bus route, passengers had to change their watches seven times in 35 miles!

The situation led to millions of dollars in costs to several industries, especially those involving transportation and communications. Extra railroad timetables alone cost the today’s equivalent of over $12 million per year.
