

Warren County seeks new member for County Ethics Board

WARREN COUNTY, NY (10/30/24) -- The Warren County Board of Supervisors is seeking a volunteer to complete a vacant term on the Warren County Board of Ethics. The volunteer member must be a Municipal Officer or Employee and will serve as a primary member on the five-person panel to complete the vacant term which will expire on 12/31/2025.

The Warren County Board of Ethics meets periodically to review complaints that are filed with the Board, review financial disclosure statements submitted by mandatory filers, and renders advisory opinions according to the Warren County Ethics and Disclosure Law.

The Board of Ethics also makes recommendations in regard to the Code of Ethics for elected and non-elected employees of Warren County government.

Members of the Board of Ethics are not financially compensated and are required to meet at least twice a year at Warren County Municipal Center.

Members may not be an official, officer or committee person of a political party or hold any similar office or title in a political party.

Volunteer applications must be submitted by November 30, 2024.

Applications will be reviewed by members of the Warren County Board of Supervisors, and the candidate selected will serve a term ending December 31, 2025.

Candidates interested in serving on this important county board should email a letter of interest and qualifications to the Warren County Administrator's Office at delorenzot@warrencountyny.gov.
